We gotta stand up for what we believe in
We got no time, we haven't got a moment
Oh yeah, there's gotta be something
A new revolution, a final solution

Oh, a rich man in the White House
All gonna rise up to let you hear our voice
Bullied and paid your way, there is no doubt
Who are they to take away a woman's choice

We've been livin' so long under oppression
All afflicted by their sick economic games
Power, policy and religion, money talks, leaders listen
All over the world the story's the same, yeah

We gotta stand up for what we believe in
We got no time, we haven't got a moment
Oh yeah, there's gotta be something
A new revolution, a final solution

Oh, we gotta change the world for our children
It'll be them who inherit all of our mistakes
So can you please listen to what I'm sayin'
Gotta change our self-destructive ignorant ways

Because our state of mind needs to be corrected
So let's teach our kids never to hate
And it's their future we're protectin'
So black and white, I'm beggin'
Can we all get along together someday

We gotta stand up for what we believe in
We got no time, we haven't got a moment
Oh yeah, there's gotta be something
A new revolution, a final solution

We gotta stand up for what we believe in
We got no time, we haven't got a moment
Oh yeah, there's gotta be something
A new revolution, a final solution

We gotta stand up for what we believe in

We got no time, we haven't got a moment
Oh yeah, there's gotta be something
A new revolution, a final solution

Stand up for what we believe in
