It's like Jordan and Pippen

Shaq and Kobe, Ike and Tina

No I ain't tryna beat you baby

It's like Sonny and Cher

Donnie and Marie girl

I just want you to know

Behind every good man there is a woman

We gotta be a team, just me and you girl

Like Jerry and Joe going for the Super Bowl

We tryna win girl

In order to win, there's gotta be a leader

And that's me, but I don't mind sharing the light with you

Baby I'm the head of this household

My love for you is worth its weight in gold

A player on a team has to play their role

Everything I do I do cause I'm the head of this household

My love for you is worth i's weight in gold

A player on a team has to play their role

Everything I do, I do cause I'm the head of this
household

Like Puff with no Biggie
Like a car with no gas girl
My love would just quit
Without you I run last girl
She's with your family
Like Huxtables or Bradys
I just want you to know
Behind that bigger man there's a good woman
Hope your praying for me
I know you're waiting on me girl
Just wait and see where we'll be
In about two or three or four years girls
You're the sweet of my tea
And I hope you feel me
Baby won't you stay with me
We got such a good team
Baby I'm the head of this household
My love for you is worth it's weight in gold
A player on a team has to play their role
Everything I do is all for you
Baby I'm the head of this household
My love for you is worth it's weight in gold
A player on a team has to play their role
Everything I do, I do cause I'm the head of this household
From the house to the cars

To the bank accounts

I do all of that

No matter what you need

Those things I bring and all of that

I've been the backbone all this time in this relationship

If you leave, I don't even trip

That's the way I kick it oh

All my folks say I'm stupid for that

They just jealous of you cause I don't need a ride like that

One thing I always said if I find a girl I'll treat her right

I'm saying I think that's you tonight

Baby I'm the head of this household

My love for you is worth it's weight in gold

A player on a team has to play their role

Everything I do is all for you

Baby I'm the head of this household

My love for you is worth it's weight in gold

A player on a team has to play their role

Everything I do, I do cause I'm the head of this household

Whoa....whoa...whoa

Baby I'm the head of this household

My love for you is worth it's weight in gold

A player on a team has to play their role

Everything I do is all for you

Baby I'm the head of this household

My love for you is worth it's weight in gold

A player on a team has to play their role

Everything I do, I do cause I'm the head of this household
