do,do,do,do,do,do (What happened to the girl I used to know)x2

Chorus

you've changed

you're not the girl that used to do things the way i like it

its a damn shame cause you was on yo way to the house, the money, the keys to the range

verse 1

so what's the dillio shorty, won't you tell me so i really know if you got plans to be with me why'd you flip the script on me i need to know that you're the one i can take around the worl

so tell me, tell me, tell me baby why you've changed...

chorus x2

i know you're feelin low i know you're thinkin' bout' the things that you let go i know you're mad(but i'm)i'm kinda glad cause i took what you had and you still let it go to wast baby now i know i'm happy i lost what i thought was close to me i should have known that you're not right for me

chorus x2

bridge

i can't believe

just how bad i had it then you turned around and changed the game on me now that i see you and me aren't working, not working

J.D.

all i remember was a relationship that was tight and strong please, i need you to tell me where it all went wrong now was it my friends or your friends or was ot the fact that you recieved the jag when you wanted the benz you think i'm crazy, but i seen hang ups like that i mean, somethin' made you change up like that i used to bang out the backs so no way in hell and i kept you in the stacks so i know good and well you never missed a meal and got everything you dreamed had me like it's for real bout' to jump you aring white 10 carrots and nothing but bling bling and the right to tell me not to kick the scene you wanna give that up?

what is it

do i work too much did the playa just loose his touch i mean it can't be that , i'm still shootin out things i thought you was the one but damn, you've changed chorus till fade
