One day there will be no more pain like an opiate
wonderland,
No more worry, it will all just end.

And all our forward movement will finally cease.

The human machine will finally bleed,
The human machine will finally cease to be.

So set yourself free,
And disengage from reality.
So set yourself free,
And disengage from reality.

The grounds will shake and your children will tremble,
Soon enough the machine will fall.
And we will all crumble,
The human machine will finally bleed and cease to be.
We'll finally be set free, be set free, be set free.

Just be glad you know what life is,
Be glad you know.
You know what life is!
You know what life is!

One day there will be no worry,
No more pain, it will all just end.
And all our forward movement will finally cease.

Disengage.
Disengage.
Disengage.
Disengage.
Disengage.
Disengage.
Disengage...
