If you hate the world around you
And you hate everything that you see
And if what you see makes you happy
Then fuck off 'cause we're all out of time
So follow me

Life is short, I'll make it what's worth
With time well spent, time spent so well
So don't run away, just face the new day
Without a single fear in mind
Just take it one day at a time

And fuck everything, everything
Fuck everything, everything!
If you hate the world
And it makes you sick what you see
Then follow me

Life is short, I'll make it what's worth
With time well spent, time spent so well
So don't run away, just face the new day
Without a single fear in mind
Just take it one day at a time

And fuck everything, everything
Fuck everything, everything!
Welcome to a nightmare
This is the place we all call home
Welcome to a nightmare
This is the place we hate to call home
We fucking hate
Hate
Hate

If you hate the world and you hate what you see
Then say this with me; fuck everything (x6)

Put your fingers in the fucking air
And live your life without a care

If you hate the world and you hate what you see

Then say this with me; fuck everything (x2)

If you hate the world (fuck everything)
And it makes you sick what you see

Fuck everything
Say this with me

Fuck everything (x22)
