So wake from ignorance and take up shield,

For your creations, for your creations.

So wake up from ignorance and take up shield,

For your creations, for your creations.

Protect your blood!

A sick, sad, addiction to the ones who hold such innocence.

And to the heart that beats with my blood, I am your shield.

And to the heart that beats with my blood, I am your shield.

For your creations, for your creations.

For your creations, for your creations.

So pick up and bare your arms,

Fathers prepare your shields.

So pick up and bare your arms,

Fathers prepare your shields.

Slaughter the sick!

Sick men of malice intent who feed off our young.

Your peers are prey, your peers are prey,

So crush the convicted, so crush the convicted,

Predators to prey, predators to prey.

So wake from ignorance and take up shield,
For your creations, for your creations.
So wake from ignorance and take up shield,
For your creations, for your creations.
Slaughter the sick, your peers to prey.
Slaughter the sick, your peers to prey.
Slaughter the sick, your peers to prey.
Slaughter the sick, your peers to prey.
Slaughter them!
Slaughter them!
Slaughter them!
Slaughter them!
And to the one that bleeds with my blood,
I am your shield.
And to the heart that bleeds with me blood,
I am your shield.
