Illimunate the obvious

it's standing right here in front of us what out apartment does when we're not around does not concern us

Simulate the obvious and it's standing, standing right here in front of us just what out apartment does

She's the horrible esthete and she hates her ugly feet at a place where her friends all meet she takes her shoes off and invites everyone to see

Eliminate the obvious and it's right here, right here in front of us just what out apartment does when we're not around does not concern us

at the place where her friends all meet while her clock reinforces its conceit and her mirror checks out other things the walls stand a little more at ease and her books they chat so expertly and her cups and saucers get some sleep and things get all together neat an at the clicking of the key returns the horrible esthete
