words by Gordon Downie music by Bobby Baker)

I need your confidence need to know you're mine when it gets right down to the killing time i know you're heart is bad but it's all I've ever had we can live our lives on this righteous crime

I got kicked when I was down and a sailor took my girl to town then she licked my wounds with the sea dog's salt

I drank half a bottle of jack swore I'd never take you back by the bottle's end

I was on that phone

What you call compromise

I don't understand

What you call compromise

I don't understand

How do you walk away

How do you walk away from a woman that gone and done you wrong
