"Lets Stay Engaged"

It might be late but it won't be early you got me to the gate with time for a coffee it's getting late sounds like a departure it's getting close sounds to me like a departure Until we meet again lets stay engaged until then lets stay engaged Lies over time float to the surface lies over time they equal surface lies over time though the reasons desert us lies over time with no apparent purpose Until we meet again lets stay engaged
until then lets stay engaged See the dead art and you see your reflection fear no art and you fear no reflection but don't look at me, I'm not the artist in question sounds good to me, but I'm not the artist in question Until we meet again lets stay engaged
