You took the easy way out now it's the hard way back in you didn't need no excuse for running away on a restless wind felt so good to let it all go just as your heart was hurting until that hard came coming down low, you realize that you got a hurricane turning a hurricane turning

now it's the hard way back in,
and now you can't get to sleep at night thinking about all the things that you could have been felt so good to let it all go,
just as your heart was hurting, some little thought shot a cross your mind nobody said you can't stop a hurricane turning

So here it comes hold on better get yourself ready now here it comes there is no such thing as watch as you (â€¦) it

Oh, felt so good to let it all go just as heart was hurting some little breeze blew across your mind nobody said you can't stop a hurricane turning oh, a hurricane turning
