A slap in the face, did she let you go? she said I don't wanna be here, I thought you should know
I don't wanna be saved this time, like the last time, like the last time I don't wanna feel bad, when you're not around you don't wanna feel guilty, she let you down you just wanna feel free this time, like the first time, like the first time

I might be kinda crazy, to put things in check that in go all the future, we're all to what's left there's a choice to made this time, is it our time, is it our time then you'll figure out, that you're better off holy you'll call me up, I say why don't you have me to change your mind by now, I don't know, what you're about, I don't know

she's searching for ways, to try and feel better he's searching for things, to try and forget her but her company's just to much, they remember, I remember
I'll drop in to you, and we'll joke about past lies, the way that they end
and reckoned in past lies, bystanders day to shine, shine alone
but he still has, in his mind, stay away stay away, don't say my name

stay away, don't say my name stay away, don't say my name (a slap in the face, did she let you go?) stay away, don't say my name (she said "I don't wanna be here, I thought you should know") stay away, don't say my name (I don't wanna be saved this time, like the last time, like the last time) don't say, my name
