Admired by many. Hunted by more
Iâ€™m preparing for the next big score
Last chance to achive, praying for sucess
Not the time to leave, need the lord to bless
No time to waste, freedom I chased
Realize to late, that this is my fate
Trying to get out, it's stuck like a cancer
Never been and never going to be the answer

Taking too long, only seconds to go
I have reached an alltime low
Finally done i am the only one
Who lost my life tonight.

No future too come
Justice is done
Just a long slow sentence to hell
Realize this burdon
That Iâ€™m carring
Please set me free from this pain
I can not take it
I can not fake it, anymore

Failing to deliver, always on the run
When I was starting out this was all just for fun
Cought in a trap, no chance to get out
Something that I knew nothing about
Thrown in a cell, waiting for justice
There is no escape, I have no choice but to die
It's like a claw around my life, all I want is to be free
From this everyday of doublelife that you can't see

I must find a way to kill myself
I'll hang my body from this shelf
Using my shirt to tie the knot
Bye bye world you don't know what you've got!
