"Faster And Faster To Nowhere"

Oh I'm walking faster, faster and faster to nowhere
Oh I'm running slower, slower and slower to somewhere
'Cause the city, is closing tighter,
tighter and tighter around me

It's a nightmare, daymare, it's a badmare no matter which way mare.
People pushing, hustling, rushing on into the future
Windows open, closing in a way that they just never use to Oh there's violence lurking in the alleys where no one should dare go So keep walking faster, faster and

faster to nowhere

Children crying, screaming, but no one lets on that they hear them

It's getting louder, louder, surely then someone must hear them

'Cause the city is closing tighter,

badmare no matter which way mare.
