Undercover cop car came screeching to a halt body lying on the ground must be someone's fault circumstantial evidence seemed to point her way her right to remain silent was all she heard them say

Blue dress, blue eyes blonde hair, about five foot nine wrong place, wrong time wrong face, wrong crime

(Chorus):
Mistaken identity
could happen to you or to me
mistaken identity
mistaken identity
could happen to you or to me
mistaken identity
mistaken identity...

(I didn't do it, no, I didn't do it)

No money for a lawyer to defend her case satnding in the line up tears rolling down her face

No one cared to listen someone had to take the heat sometimes there's no justice when you're the victim of the street

Wrong place, wrong time wrong face, wrong crime (x 4)

(chorus)
Tu ut tu tu tu...tu ut tu tu tu

They didn't even say I'm sorry tried to put her away in a hurry

Don't make her pay the price she's no guilty (guilty)
for someone else's crime set her free
(set her free)

I didn't...
I didn't...
I didn't do it...no (x 4)

(Chorus out)
