When I was young, I used to dream of going far, Having my once, in a life time chance, to prove I was a star.

A thousand times you stood in the wings, dreaming it was me,

I heard the people going wild, but it was just my fantasy,

Life is a dance, maybe we're all players, so stand up and smile, and don't be afraid,

chorus

This is my night, This is my song, standing right here, out on the stage, is where I belong,

This is my song, this is my night, standing right here, out on the stage, in the spotlight...

I traveled the road, where ever the road would lead, I made mistakes, but I wouldn't quit, I made myself believe,

Dreams come true, for those who dream, so one day you can say, the music speaks, the beat of life, and let the music play!

(repeat chorus)
