Like the stars that shine above in a warm and wind tossed love just like tears that fall forever Like the raven and the dove looking for a perfect love after rainy, stormy weather I am yours and you are mine till the stars fall from my eyes there will always be a you

Chorus

A ship sailing without end a lost, tired, worn down friend an old broken run down shoe I keep running back for more, at least you thought I would be sure but I gave up, I broke it's true still there will always be a you Don't ask me how

I tried so long and in my heart I know

I will never go away

if you wanted me to stay

well in a million years

I wouldn't go

Cause I love you so

yes I do

I love you so

I could never leave you

I love you

don't go away

there will always be a you

Repeat chorus

till the stars fall from my eyes

I will never go away

cause I love you so

yes I do

I love you so
I love you
can't go away
At night I cry
can't find a reason
can't seem to understand
