Can dreams predict the future?
Well if they can then you're in luck.
You've got a one-way ticket to freedom
but you'll need to stop the buck.

Here take it in your heands.
Yeah, you like the way that it feels.
It's not something tangible but I love the way it smells.
And the taste is something so euphoric, man you gotta
try this.
Could it be? Could it be you made it,
but you've got only one foot in the door.

Just finish what you started it's the only way in.
Are you sure? Are you sure you've tasted all you have in store. You wanted more?

You live below your means and you just won't believe it.
Your life will pass you by.
You'll stop way before empty and you won't know why, unless you see through vanity, and when you do, you'll be in luck.
Don't be so superficial; you will save yourself a buck.
The feeling is strong in you I know. You understand how it feels.
If you never knew it before then you've got to see it now.
And your face will change so that only you will notice
the difference.
