"Once"

Once you said that our love was heaven sent
Now it seems it was all a dream that slipped away.
Now I know why once love, now pride.
Once I had something precious to my soul
Carelessly, I lost sight of what it meant to me.
Now I know why love shared
Now divides me from you.
When the night draws near
I will always sense you here
We lost a song we meant send clear
I know that now
I have somehow to bring you back to me
I know that now
I cannot leave.
Forgiveness is all that I ask from you
Please have faith
I can make the change and start anew.
Now I know why
Once lost now my mind can see
Now I know why because I will always love you.
