I can't believe my luck, I can't believe I'm here
I wanna scream, but I can't breathe
It's rolling off his tongue, it's music to my ears
He's saying he's in love with me
By the smile on my face, you'd think the morning paper said
That everyday's a holiday and TV makes you smart And shopping is a job "they wanna know when I can start
And wrinkles disappear from laughing with your friends
And sleeping makes you thin
And chocolate is a vitamin, chocolate is a vitamin
It's hard to beat the odds in a world so full of people There's only one I'm meant to find
I'm down to my last straw in a big old stack of needles
But I found you in the nick of time
And now it's got me thinking that anything is possible
Like everyday's a holiday and TV makes you smart
And shopping is a job "they wanna know when I
can start
And wrinkles disappear from laughing with your friends
And sleeping makes you thin
And chocolate is a vitamin, chocolate is a vitamin
They have you believe that moderation is key
But a love this sweet is absolutely good for me
Yeah
Everyday's a holiday and TV makes you smart
And shopping is a job "they wanna know when I
can start
And wrinkles disappear from laughing with your friends
And sleeping makes you thin
And chocolate is a vitamin, chocolate is a vitamin
And chocolate is a vitamin
