I really don't have very much to say
But I thought I'd call you anyway
It seems like it's been a long time since we spoke together
Yeah
I won't keep you very long
But today on the radio I heard our old song
And I had to think of you, yeah I had to think of you
Brought a smile to my lips and a tear to my eye
We used to laugh so hard 'til we cried
What else could I do with all those memories of me and you?
Well the past came rolling back, I had to think of you
You moved away and we drifted apart
But you've always kept a little piece of my heart
The last time I went by your old place
I had to admit my heart started to race
And I had to think of you, yeah I had to think of you
Brought a smile to my lips and a tear to my eye
We used to laugh so hard 'til we cried
What else could I do with all those memories of me and
you?
Well the past came rolling back, I had to think of you Thought I was over you and put the past behind me
But all it took was the familiar melody
I guess you'd say my pride is gone and I sold out for just a song
The one we always used to sing along together remember
And I had to think of you, yeah I had to think of you
Brought a smile to my lips and a tear to my eye
We used to laugh so hard 'til we cried
What else could I do with all those memories of me and
you?
Well the past came rolling back, I had to think of you
What else could I do? I had to think of you Because of all the memories of me and you
What else could I do? I had to think of you
