I'm a grown-up girl
It's not like I've never been alone in the night
With the walls closing in
I could slip on some heels, fix up my hair
Call an old friend and go dancing somewhere
If I was only lonely, if I was only blue
If I was only lonely, that's what I would do
But I'm only lonely for you
What do you do, and what's true in your heart
And the way it turns out are miles apart
Out on the town, I could search for a spark
Kindle a flame and take a shot in the dark
If I was only lonely, if I was only blue
If I was only lonely, that's what I would do
But I'm only lonely for you
So if you come around
Lord give me the eyes to see
You're only lonely; you're only lonely for me
If I was only lonely, if I was only blue
If I was only lonely, I'd know what to do
But I'm only lonely
I'm only lonely
I'm only lonely for you (for you)
