When I was a little girl, I had a paper kite
As it danced on the breeze, my spirit flew high
I'd let go of the string and watch it float away
Back then it was so easy to take a chance on life
Just let go of everything and watch my hopes take flight
But now the chances seem so hard for me to take
But thank God you're beside me if I need a hand
I'm not afraid at all to freefall because I've got a safe place to land
You put the wings on my dreams
I know what freedom means
Now I believe I can do anything
You stood by and watched me fly to the sky
You put the wings on my dreams
Now I know the meaning of true success
Because you've made me realize that I'm so blessed
And the power to change my life was in me all the time
You've helped me to the top of my mountain of fear
The paths I thought were closed are the open roads
That led me here
You put the wings on my dreams
I know what freedom means
Now I believe I can do anything
You stood by and watched me fly to the sky
You put the wings on my dreams
You put the wings on my dreams
I know what freedom means
Now I believe I can do anything
You stood by and watched me fly to the sky
You put the wings on my dreams
You put the wings on my dreams
