I saw some people dancing
dancing in the street.
I walked up to them and asked them now tell me what I see.
They froze all of a sudden and looked me in the eyes

Then stared to each other and laughed for some time.
They said: alright
listen hey
dancing is communicate

Dancing is to celebrate.
Breakdancing
you've got to work that body
everybody.
Breakdancing
you've got to move your body
everybody.
Breakdancing
you've got to spin around until the midnight hour.
They danced along the sidewalks people stood and stared

Inviting everybody to join them everywhere.
They said: Alright
listen hey
dancing is communicate

...
Breakdancing
you've got to work that body
everybody. . . .
Breakdancing
everybody
everybody

Breakdancing
you've got to work that body
everybody. . . .
