

Summoning "Through The Forest Of Dol Guldur"

Visit "Through The Forest Of Dol Guldur" on MotoLyrics.com

A misty path through woods long past enshrined in silence and runes will keep the secrets of Dol Guldur

Far away and over the cold fog mountains our gleaming eyes are searching for a sign and down to the deepest dungeons and to the old forgotten lair

We must leave now, before a new day breaks to search for the pale gold that once belonged to the forest By the sounds of pounding hammers that sound like bells of the elves in our ears... we are still searching in the underground where our dark secrets sleep

Far away over the cold fog mountains we have to leave now, before a new day breaks eternally...
