We can, We can. We can x4 We've got the world in our hands, Now we're gonna start a new day. Summer feet hit sidewalk, Now we're gonna start a new day... We are not on our own, On our own We'll share this moment... 'Cause we can. We can x3 Change the world with every footstep we're taking the journey. We're gonna do the little things, The big things, With everything we can. 'Cause we can. We can change the world. Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! What's your name? Watch it stand out? Turn it up, It's time to play! You wanna give it all you got. If you want it, Then you've got what you made! We grab the microphone, Microphone. We're gonna own it! 'Cause we can. We can. We can, We can change the world. With every footstep we're taking the journey. We're gonna do the little things, The big things, With everything we can 'Cause we can. We can change the world. We got the world in own hands, We got it x3 (We can change the world) We got the world in our own hands, We got X3 We can X3 change the world we can X3 We can
