Cloud my eyes and tell me what to see

I'm falling

Every way I turn the same disease

But I like it

Brace myself and hit the wall with ease

Colliding

I'm not minding the pain

~Chorus~

I've been down here before

All my bones and joints are sore

Pick my way out of the wreck again

I've been down here before

Lost myself and so much more

Find my way out of the game again

Open up my head and take it in

Just like always

Think about the bar and take a swing

Loaded trapeze

What you need the most from me is yours

I'll continue to deceive you my friend

~Chorus~

You lost what made you you

Or maybe I never knew

I can't stay here anymore

Give it all or you're on your own

I will leave you

I will leave you

I will leave you

I will leave you

~Chorus
