

Eleven Finger "For The Ocean"

Visit "For The Ocean" on MotoLyrics.com

Without it I'm failing
My heart waits in the wings alone
The stages I go through
Keep coming time and time and time again
Do you wonder how I stay
So complacent
It's like waiting for the ocean
To save you from the waves
When you're so far under
Silent
Never moving
You're never moving
You've taken your timing
So flawless executing me
So fearless and hopeful
Can you imagine such a scene?
Do you wonder how I stay
So complacent
It's like waiting for the ocean
To save you from the waves
When you're so far under

Silent

Nevermind

Waiting for the needle

To take away the pain

Until finally we numb our every border

Do you wonder

Did you ever wonder

How I stay

So complacent

And I stay

So complacent

It's like waiting for the ocean

To save you from the waves

When you're so far under

Silent

Nevermind

Waiting for the needle

To take away the pain

Until finally we numb our every border

Our every border
