I Was Totally Destroying It
"Never Know"

You, left with suitcase in hand, unplanned, you know
That you, should have left me a note, so I'd understand
Maybe I'm wrong, maybe I'm right
But it's at this point you should start to cry
Coz if you start to think about it you'd know

You left behind something so strong
But you never gave us time to belong
The feeling was right but it's come and gone
And all this time alone has left me thinking
That I, I don't need you
BUt you'll never know......

You, gave no forward address, I'm impressed, and I'm sure
That you, you left with your bitterness, I suggest, insecure
You should have stayed to give us more time
You should have said just what was on your mind
Coz if you'd stopped and thought about it you'd know

You left behind something so strong
But you never gave us time to belong
The feeling was right but it's come and gone
And all this time alone has left me thinking
That I, I don't need you

I guess if you'd have thought about it you'd know
I bet your lying in your bed on your own
Can't you see you're tired of all your complications
Trying to fight with your frustrations
All alone with your heart of stone

You left behind something so strong
But you never gave us time to belong
The feeling was right but it's come and gone
And all this time alone has left me thinking
That I, I don't need you

You left behind something so strong
But you never gave us time to belong

The feeling was right but it's come and gone
And all this time alone has left me thinking
That I, I don't need you
But you'll never know

You left with suitcase in hand, unplanned, you know
