He was born on Sunday morning to carry on...carry on. He was like a ray of sunshine come the dawn...come the dawn.

And I looked at him and smiled as I realized this child, had come into the world to carry on...carry on.

La lah...

Well soon his eyes were open oh so wide...very wide. And with just one look I knew that God was on his side. And as he grew I gave him all the love I had inside.

And I hoped that he would use it as his guide...as his guide.

And I know they'll always be somebody watching over you

And Mama may have and Papa may have, and I know you've got it too.

He said Mama don't you worry I've got love in my heart, And you know that its always with me from the start...from the start.

And I know they'll always be somebody watchin' over me

And my Mama may have and my Papa may have,

And I've got what it takes to be free

So Mama don't you worry, I've had love since I was born,

And I've come into the world to carry...Carry on!!! I've come into the world to carry on.
