

Divorce, The "Breaker Breaker"

We've been careful of what we wished for
For so long
That now the reckless have all the good stuff
Cordoned off

Push them under
Paint by number
In the ditches
We'll make our wishes

Repeat them seven times
Then shut your mouth

Repeat them seven times
Then shut your mouth

Today we pack the car
Today we drive to Mexico
By this time tomorrow
We'll be sitting in the sun

And who will take our places?
These iridescent particles
They float around our heads
And then settle in our lungs

We can sit on your rooftop
And watch the world come to an end
We'll poke fun at all of our former friends

And my heart is
The size of your fist
I don't think that's just coincidence

Make it sexy
Don't let the kids see
Say your prayers, now
Say your prayers

Repeat them seven times
Then shut your mouth

Repeat them seven times
Then shut your mouth

Repeat them seven times
Then shut your mouth now

Just say...

Make it sexy
Don't let the kids...

Repeat them seven times
Then shut your mouth

Repeat them seven times
Then shut your mouth

Repeat them seven times
Then shut your mouth now

Just say...
