Midnight I watch you as you're sleeping

You don't know that I'm leaving

My bag is packed to go

oh,no,no,no it hurts me,

hurts me so to leave you

Leaving for someone who

I hardly even know

But time is come to say good-bye

To spread my wings and fly

To feel the need I feel inside

But I keep feeling these love pains

Hurting me through and through

Caught between a lover or two

Oh will I ever be free from these love pains

Tearing me all apart,

'cause I don't wanna break your heart

Oh will I ever be free from these love pains

Can't help, can't help to remember the love we had so tender, a world so safe and sound.

Oh no no no what is this?

temptation so inviting,
a feeling so exciting has turned it upside down although, I know I could be wrong this feeling's much too strong
I got to be where I belong
But I keep feeling these love pains
Hurting me through and through
Caught between a lover or two
Oh will I ever be free from these love pains
Tearing me all apart,
'cause I don't wanna break your heart
Oh will I ever be free from these love pains
Love pains
Hurting me through and through
Caught between a lover or two
Oh will I ever be free from these love pains
Tearing me all apart,
'cause I don't wanna break your heart
Oh will I ever be free from these love pains
Love pains
