

Sundown "Aluminum"

reptile sleep
the fix runs deep
alone with mirrors - a blank reflection stains the glass liquid eyes
late goodbyes
calling from a distant waste that you can't find and now when all is said and done nowhere left to run bittersweet aluminum - the curtain falls the time has come to end this game never be the same
bittersweet aluminum - left in my mouth diamond dreams
tainted past
it comes together - all together - it won't last exiled waves
heartbeats lost
set the world on fire now at any cost
