Caught up in your love (4)

I never imagine you could ever make me feel this way I never knew you were the one (you were the one) the distance I travelled to find the perfect things I was looking for (i was looking for but you were right here all along and now my thoughts all over you you're consuming all my time you hold my heart in such a way how did I missed the sings you come crawling over things i do I'm making for your touch I never thought i'd welcome you and now i'm caught up in your love
