Smile down on us sun, show your rays
When things come undone
All animals lead us to light
When we can't see

Stars, Saturn and moon, glow for those
Who cannot get through Rain fall and voice sound for those
Of whom still are not found

Oh gentle moon, find them soon
Gentle moon, find them soon

Black sky and black sea lighten up
When we can't breathe
All dreams escape fire over worlds
Fly but won't tire

Slow down on us wind, hold us still
When everything spins
All secrets and lies, let them out

Oh dreams escape fire
They won't tire
Dreams escape fire
They won't tire

Oh gentle moon, find them soon
Gentle moon, find them soon

All calendars pass, days die off
And hope cannot last
But if love was like stone then yours was mine
Through to my bones

Oh but how can we give back to those
With whom we can't live
When will the flame break
Spare the good people it takes?

Oh souls escape fire
They rise higher

Souls escape fire
They rise higher

Oh gentle moon, find us soon
Gentle moon, find us soon

Gentle moon, find us soon
Gentle moon, find us soon
