this space starts out empty and i know it cant hurt more than it already does and it all falls down around me and it hits me in the face i fall onto the ground and i wish that i could understand why im so upset to see these things ill never have my hands shake with anger but my eyes fill up with tears (taste like salt) and its all your fault till i can pick myself up off the ground

(groaning..)

to walk for miles let the rain soak me until i smile its getting late but i dont mind im holding onto hands as drenched as mine and for the first time in my life i want to cry and laugh at the same time because this is supposed to be happy its supposed to be special.. special.. special.
