Change in every little desire
We were counting on forces we could not control
Well and all those things you realized
We're nothing more than a memory displaced through

So the story's told beyond our grasp
We were climbing forever an infinite task
Shoulders strain with the endless toil
We're nothing more than a feather moving in the wind

Want to change everything
Want to change everything
Want to blame everything on

Well and all these seeds will grow anyway
Even though the outcome we cannot say
So you'll always have your time to shine
Even in the winter of your darkest hour

Want to change everything
Want to change everything
Want to blame everything on

La la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la

In the depths of my gloom, I crawl out for you
From the peaks of my joy, I crawl back into Tearing me down every time you smile
Every shining time you arrive, you arrive, you arrive
