Shines, shakes, makes you weary,
Hills, heights, bring him to me,
Hey, oh, way, yeah
Time makes talk ache eerie,
Night stars bring him in me
Hey, oh, way, yeah
Run away

Watch you drowning all the time
That's what you get for falling
See you crying every night
That's what you get for falling
Healing, kneeling,
To the greatness of all time
Come to, rise through, all the lies that hide the sky.
Touch you, feel you,
Going to stop what makes me cry.
Come run away with me right now.
