I'm gonna dress up, in my low-cut
My tight blue jeans, I'm gonna stir somethin' up I'm gonna kiss all the boys 'til I kiss your memory goodbye
Yeah, I'm a gonna drink myself single tonight

A bottle of red, a bottle of white
Which one will it be, I can't decide
I guess I'll find out once I drink those bottles dry
Yeah, I'm a gonna drink myself single tonight

I wanna find out what it's like to stagger in the house like you do every night
Sneakin' in the bed like I don't know the truth
I really wanna know what it's like to be you

I wanna find out what it's like

to stagger in the house like you do every night
Sneakin' in the bed like I don't know the truth
I really wanna know what it's like to be you

A bottle of red, a bottle of white
Which one will it be, I can't decide
I guess I'll find out once I drink those bottles dry
Yeah, I'm a gonna drink myself single tonight

A bottle of red
A bottle of white
Which one will it be
I can't decide

Yeah, I'm a gonna drink myself single tonight
Oh, I'm a gonna drink myself single tonight
