Yeah, check it out

I hope that what I'm about to tell really doesn't ruin

Whatever we had and keep the two of us from doing

Things we used to

You know just kicking it

Not really specific shit, just passing the time

Anyway I want to say that I'm impressed with your intelect

The way you're dealing with concepts, I'm feeling it

Something on the order of mind sex it's intimate

And I be fiending for dialect, beginning to dilate the gates of my respect

I'm giving it - unconditional too

'Cause the person I think made me more personable

Remember when I took you to spoken word

You came home saying it was the dopest shit that you ever heard

In a long time and can I find more places to chill

Sit back relax listen to jazz and build at

I felt that, and what I'm about to say now

Is that we've been kicking it long enough to figure out how

We've looking at what we have between us two

I trust you, sometimes when I see you I lust you

I must do this to get it off of my chest

Forgive me if it's taken too long to divest

But I guess, that what I really want to tell you is

Tell you is, tell you is

[Chorus]

I want you more than you would know

So let me share with you my soul

I can't explain the way it feels when you are standing next to me

So if you want me let it show

[Emanon]

Whatever you got to say I'm cool with it

That doesn't mean that what I just told you I bullshitted

I'm serious about it but respect if you doubt it 'Cause I know sometimes a friendship can get clouded By the hidden feelings they be concealing from another
Never tell'em the pain is swelling heavy undercover Something happens and one gets trapped in lying to another
When really it's kind of silly 'cause the both want to be lovers
I'm sick of contemplating the thought on Whether telling you how I feel is wrong or not wrong
No amount of philosophy can answer this question It's about how I'm feeling inside, so I'm professing with pride
My intentions is noble and true
And that's all there ain't much more I got to say to you
And that's all there ain't much more I got to say to you
And oh yeah, there one more thing I got to say to you

[Chorus]
