Your one in a million I thought you should know
That big things could happen if you let us grow
I'll be your protection
I'll be your companion
If I could just have you I wouldn't let go
I'm hoping your happy but only you know
And if your not happy then why not let go
There must be a reason I feel this connection
Baby lets find out what life has in store yeah

Tonight girl it can be the night
That we gon' get it poppin, problems all forgotten
Tonight we'll do it as yu like
See I just need a chance to show you that i need yu

What you want what you like what you need girl(4x)

So tell me the reason that you wont let down
Those guards that imprison that blossoming rose
I don't wanna pressure but we should go further
Cuz baby you deserve the finest in store
Your body is yearning its all in your face
No point in denying what you should embrace
You say not to tease you , I promise I'll please you
Just let me in girl

Tonight girl it can be the night
That we gon' get it poppin, problems all forgotten
Tonight we'll do it as yu like
See I just need a chance to show you that I'd give you

What you want what you like what you need girl(4x)

You can count on me baby

Your one in a million I thought you should know
That big things could happen if you let us grow
I'll be your protection
I'll be your companion
If I could just have you I wouldn't let go
I'm hoping your happy but only you know

And if your not happy then why not let go
There must be a reason I feel this connection
Baby lets find out what life has in store yeah

Tonight girl it can be the night
That we gon' get it poppin, problems all forgotten
Tonight we'll do it as yu like
See I just need a chance to show you that I'd give you

What you want what you like what you need girl(4x)
