Whatever it is spit it into a bottle and sell it to me

I'm looking to buy freedom from my sobriety

Just like Huey Lewis

I need a new drug, I need a new drink

I need a new drug that does what it should

So take me to the bank

Take me to the bar

Can you take me to the hot spot?

This is what we worked so hard to afford but

Take me to the bank

Can you take me to the bar?

Can you take me to the hot spot?

This is what we worked so hard to afford but

How I wanna hide

The next time you visit me here

How about coming out to my place

We can sit on the floor and play my brother's records

We can sit on the grownup bed

Couple with the coin

Lighting up to join the coping crowd

My big brother said to stay unsatisfied

Never work a day to pay off your desire

Couple with the coin

Lighting up to join the coping crowd
