"Gently Hurting"

Climb the scarlet mountain just to get to you,
Breathe in a galaxy just to control you,
Calculate the friction between our fingers,
And i remember that

She was so pretty
She was so pretty

Now i can smile because your next to me,
Darkness seeks the world around us,
Now time just stops,
Because your next to me

But she turns my world upside down.

Her gentle hurt awaits for me then kicks me in the teeth,
But i can't turn away,
I will always cherish all that you have done for me,
But now your gently hurting

Your imperfections,
They make you perfect,
You dance with me just like a serpent,
They travelled through time to get back to you,
Travel throught time

Her gentle hurt awaits for me and kicks me in the teeth,
But i can't turn away,
I will always treasure all that you have done for me,
But now your gently hurting.
