I didn't wake up today planning on feeling how I feel Had that dream where you wake up hoping it was real Guess that's what happens when you let down your guard
You gotta know what you're getting yourself into I had no clue

So I'm calling the time, now I need to catch my breath
And I gotta use it wise me 'cause I only got one left Somebody shouldn't have told me that it's possible to win
When a game that will make a proof, now it's too late
'cause I'm on leave

Doing everything by the ..but I'm finding out that Love don't play fair Game pretty good, but I'm founding out that love don't play fair Always in the love that felt Different kind of pain I never felt You win 'cause I'm giving in You've been trying to fight it if you there But love don't play fair.

I had a talk with love, we made a deal, thought that we were cool
Soon as I turn my back, everything change, now I'm looking like a fool Should've known better I should have followed my first mind
It's the last thing that I had to learn
It won't be that way next time

So I'm calling the time, oh 'cause I really need to catch my breath
And I gotta use it wise me help me, got one left And somebody should have told me that it's possible to
win
When a game that makes a proof, now it's too only
'cause I leave
