Your eyes are pretty and your smile is too
It's just a pity I'm the only one who can see more than which meets the eye
They think I just see you as my grand price
So don't believe what they might say
They think I'm just playing

They don't know what they're saying to you
This isn't just a game we're playing
They don't know what they're doing to you
And me they think that we're just playing

I heard my friends say that I'm letting go
They talk of lots of things they do not know
Listen to me
Don't you trust me more than my friend you heard talking through the door
So don't believe what they might say
They think that I'm just playing

They don't know what they're saying to you
This isn't just a game we're playing
They don't know what they're doing to you
And me they think that we're just playing

Your eyes are pretty and your smile is too
It's just a pity I'm the only one who can see more than
which meets the eye
They think I just see you as my price

I heard my friends say that I'm letting go
They talk of lots of things they do not know
Listen to me
Don't you trust me more than my friend you heard
talking through the door
So don't believe what they might say
They think that I'm just playing

They don't know what they're saying to you
This isn't just a game we're playing
They don't know what they're doing to you

And me they think that we're just playing

"We're not playing!"
