Four scene of love and laughter.
I'll be alright being alone.
Four scene of love and laughter.
I'll be alright being alone...
Four scene of love and laughter.
I'll be alright being alone...
Four scene of love and laughter.
I will be okay.

If I meet my love, and we part,
We'll meet again, like we did before.
The sweet darkness I find
Fumbling around deep in my memories,

I can taste the sweetness of the past.
Although you're not anywhere
I'll be alright,
If I close my eyes to that,
Love won't change,
I believe

When the spring light warms, the flowers bloom
In summer, I gaze at the moon floating on the sea
The fall wind, and the winter snow
With that sigh, I wish to be warmed,
Four seasons with your love
Once again.

The promise of that only wish
Fades away when time passes.
Can you feel me underneath the skin?
If feelings again happened that way,
We'll be alright,
If I just believe,
No matter how far away you are,
Stay with me.

The spring flowers sleep as we meet in the night.
I leave a message in the sandy beaches of summer.
The fall rain, the winter tears,
With a show of love, I wish to be warmed,

Four seasons with your love
In a dream.

Time flows into my heart,
And truthfully,
Our every day is nearer to a memory,
Love and dreams may be things forgotten
one day, but, my wish is to be warmed.
Four seasons with your love,
Within my heart.

Four scene, four four seasons
Four scene, I'll be alright?
Four scene, four four seasons
Four scene, stay with me?

Four scene, four four seasons
Four scene, I'll be alright?
Four scene, four four seasons
Four scene, stay with me?

Four scene, four four seasons
Four scene, I'll be alright?
Four scene, four four seasons
Four scene, stay with me?

Four scene, four four seasons
Four scene, I'll be alright?
Four scene, four four seasons
Four scene, stay with me?
