Rafe Van Hoy)

You never know 'till it happens to you

What really needing someone can do

You're never sure

'Till it takes you by storm

When a dream slips from your mind

And into your arms

This feeling's so strong

I just can't go wrong

You ask me how long

Will I love you

Forever and ever

Forever

Sometimes it's hard to believe what you feel

Imagination is so warm and real

But time can't lie

And it can not be seen

The more that I hold you

The more I believe

This feeling's so strong

I just can't go wrong

You ask me how long

Will I love you

Forever and ever

Forever
