Hugh Prestwood)

They had been together way too long

For him to start again

So he does most of his living in the past

Round the house he never says a word

Til something makes him ask

Is that you

Tappin' my window pane

Is that you

Or just a draft movin' that candle flame

Something round here keeps my heart

From breakin' right in two

Is that you

In the dark he rises from a dream

And takes a look around

Makin' sure there really isn't someone there

He could swear he heard her call his name

Quite as a prayer

Is that you

Takin' a step on that creaking stair

Is that you

Quietly counting a you brush your hair

Something round here keeps my heart

From breakin' right in two

Is that you
