Yowre fereful loue cannot preuayle nor yet faythfull trust also sum thynke to sytt oftymes do fayle wherby they change theyre relyshe to wo

What tho In that yet put no trust [5] but all ways after as ye set for say yor wyll and do yor lust there ys no place for yow to be No [sure therm] ye ar farr owte yor labor lost ye loue to save [10] but ons I put ye owte off dowte the thyng ys had that ye wolde haue

Tho to remayn wyth owt remorse and pytyles to be opprest yet ys the coorse of love by force [15] to take all thyng vnto the best

Well yet beware yft thow be wysse and leue thy [loue] thy hete to coole ffor fere lest she thy loue dyspyse reportyng the but as a foole [20] Syns thys to folow of force thow must and by nor reason can refrayn thy chawnce shall change thy lest mystrust as thow shall prove vnto thy payn

When wythe suche payn thou shalt be payd [25] the whyche shall passe all remedy then thynke on thys that I haue sayd and blame thy folysse ffantasy
