The one that I loved, used to laugh when I cried.
The one that I loved, wouldn't stay by my side.
If love could of lasted forever, I'd be with her today.
If love could of lasted forever, I'd still hear her say
darling,
Kings of the highway, we will be.
The faster you drive, the less you can feel.
The lights on the road, are strange and unreal.
When there's nothing to loose, there's nothing to win.
In a night without day, on a road with no end darling,
Kings of the highway, we will be.
And your hoping the sun, won't rise.
And your hoping the sun, won't rise.
Kings of the highway, we will be.
( Guitar Solo )
The one that I loved, used to laugh when I cried.
The one that I loved, wouldn't stay by my side.
If love could of lasted forever, I'd be with her today.
If love could of lasted forever, I'd still hear her say
darling,
Kings of the highway, we will be.
Darling kings of the highway, we will be.
Darling kings.... Of the highway.... We will be.
We will be.
