I got my health
I got my strength
I'm in my right mind
I still have breath so I got hope
And where I go I need not look behind me
He keeps me safe
And this is something he does every day.

When I look around
I cannot take for granted
The gift to me
The favor I've been handed
All the miracles and wonders I have witnessed
I do not guess I know that I am truly blessed
I must keep the faith
No matter what I'm seeing
'Cuz that's the key unlocking my receiving
The impossible taking place in my life
The greater steps ascending to those hight heights.

I got my health
I got my strength
I'm in my right mind
I still have breath so I got hope
And love is on my side
And where I go I know I need not look behind me
He keeps me safe
And this is something he does everyday

I got my health
I got my strength
I'm in my right mind
I still have breath so I got hope
And love is on my side
And where I go I know I need not look behind me
